

In regards to the no fax rule, we fax to our customers daily training events, promotions or the like. Your action would be very detrimental to our business. Faxing is a very effective way for us to communicate. For us to obtain a consent form for all existing accounts and all new accounts is extremely difficult to do. This new law would hurt our customers as much as us. DON'T DO IT!!